WHO WE ARE

AT CRI, WE INVITE INDIVIDUALS OF ALL BACKGROUNDS, ABILITIES AND EXPERIENCE TO GROW THROUGH ROWING

Community Rowing Inc. (CRI) was founded in 1985 as a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization dedicated to the belief that the sport of rowing provides unique opportunities to promote personal and community growth through teamwork, discipline, and physical fitness.

Located on the Charles River, CRI is internationally recognized for the dynamic and diverse community it serves and holds the distinction of being the largest public access rowing organization in North America.

CRI'S SOCIAL ENTERPRISE MODEL

By participating in a team building program, hosting your meeting, or holding a client or employee event, you're supporting CRI's mission. The revenue from corporate events supports our outreach efforts with Boston Public School students, active duty and veterans, and para athletes—all of whom receive access to programs at no cost or reduced cost.

ROWING IS THE ULTIMATE TEAM SPORT

CRI has the ability to customize programming for 5 - 500 people. Please contact events@communityrowing.org to create an outing that meets your needs and budget.
